Augusta Independent and Bracken County Schools jointly recognize “Red Ribbon Week”

October 20 - 24 was recognized as “Red Ribbon Week” nationwide. This year, both the Augusta Independent Schools, and the Bracken County School District had officials meet to arrange it as a countywide effort.

Officials met and planned daily activities for the students, faculty, staff, and businesses throughout Bracken County. Letters were sent to all area businesses with the activities list included so that all could participate.

The theme for the week was I Can, You Can, We Can. Both school districts participated along with several area businesses to host a canned food drive with all items being collected going to the Bracken County Food Pantry as a donation.

On Friday, October 24th, Augusta Independent Schools Superintendent, Lisa McCane, Bracken County Schools Superintendent, Jeff Aulick, Jason Hinson and Trish Conley from the Augusta Independent and Bracken County Family Resource and Youth Service Centers, and the AIS/BC Community Education Program Director, Phyllis Reed finalized the activities for the week with a joint meeting of students from both Augusta Independent and Bracken County at the Augusta River Park. The theme for that day was ‘Rivals on the Court, But United Against Drugs in Our Communities and County’.

More substance abuse prevention activities are being planned between the two school districts for the remaining school year.

TRASH TALK

by: Mr. Recycle Bin & Ms. Pick-Up Litterbug

606-735-9960

Howdy Folks! Area ghosts and goblins enjoyed a most beautiful day on Sunday to participate in the much anticipated Trick or Treat tradition! While many cities designate the Sunday closest to Halloween as Trick or Treat Day, October 31 is the actual date of this fall celebration. The custom of dressing up in costumes dates back many, many centuries when Christians dressed up as their favorite saint to celebrate the holyday of All Saints Day on November 1. The word “hallow” means holy and ancient Christians celebrated “all hallows eve”, October 31, with costumes and food. The custom has evolved over the centuries and today’s children and many adults celebrate what has become known as “Halloween” with costume parties and going from house to house to be treated with candy so that the homeowner does not have to suffer the consequences of non-compliance! If our grandchildren can be used as an example, we’re pretty sure that many teachers are dealing with the effects of too much sugar consumed by their students yesterday and with that we will express a “Happy Halloween” to everyone!

There have been a few complaints lately concerning homeowners setting their trash out too soon before the designated Rumpke Trash Pickup day which results in blowing trash. This ‘litter-waiting-for-a-place-to-land’ is very annoying to neighbors, but it can also result in fines for the guilty party. Bracken County’s Solid Waste Management Ordinance No. 87-002 specifically states that trash must be contained in lidded containers and the only time the lid is removed is when the homeowner puts trash into the container or when Rumpke removes it to dispose of the accumulated trash. In other words, if you are going to keep your trash cans at the curb, they have to have a securely fitting lid so that animals cannot get into the contents, and if the cans are blown by the wind, the lid remains in place. Not only do the cans need to be maintained, but the ordinance provides that ‘the area surrounding them need to be kept in a clean, neat and sanitary condition at all times. Solid waste shall be stored in a manner that will not provide harborage to rodents and vermin and will not create a fire hazard.’ It seems very inconvenient to keep garbage cans at the curb unless taking the garbage out is part of your daily exercise routine!

Roll-offs continue to be available in the county for citizen use and for current locations, it is advisable to contact the Judge Executive’s Office of Earl Bush at 735-2300. As of this Monday morning, dumpsters are at Galloway’s store lot in Berlin, on Bobby Downard’s lot in Powersville, and at the RR Underpass at the end of Long Stretch in Augusta. Once these two containers are filled, they will be removed and located to a different area. Please do not put tires into these roll-offs! It is against the regulations of the Mason County Landfill and creates a double expense for the disposal of these tires. We extend our sincerest

Bracken County Historical Society Ghost Stories

Several months ago we asked that those folks knowing anything about ghosts in Bracken County to please contact us. The response has been slow but steady and at this time of ghosts and goblins we thought it timely to update you on this important topic.

The first thing we heard was, "I don't believe in ghosts." Well, that's fine, but do you believe in angels? "Oh, yes, I know that angels are here."

Well, this set us off on our research project. Are ghosts just spirits that have failed to cross over? Are angels spirits that have come back to help us??? The questions are many and the answers few.

Here are the tales we have collected so far. Remember, this is oral history. You may agree or disagree—it's up to you.

Heard from two former residents of the home where Nelson Marksberry lived. Both will swear that when they lived in the home, they would hear a knock at the door, open it, and a rush of cold air and footsteps would enter the room. One of these former residents is a senior citizen and the other a young lady who lived there several years.

Nelson Marksberry was killed in 1915 and buried in Owen Cemetery. The residents in the area say that there are times when he is heard walking along the road, whistling, and he goes home, knocks on the door and enters when it is opened. Several people have seen his apparition, walking and whistling. What do you think?

In the Berlin-Powersville area there is an old home, Civil War era, that was the residence of a Confederate sympathizer. During the Battle of Augusta and the subsequent retreat of the Basil Duke forces, there was a rebel soldier who was badly wounded and could not travel with his retreating comrades. He was left in the care of the owner of this home. The owner knew that the Union soldiers and the home guard would be searching for any stragglers. Wounded rebels had to be found so they could be shown Union justice, a prison camp, or worse. The wounded soldier was placed in the attic of the home, and the story goes that he was bleeding so much that the blood ran through the ceiling and down the side walls. Eventually he died and was never able to return to the South.

This man left his mark—bloodstained walls and ceiling. On these cool fall days, if you are near the place, you can hear the wounded rebel moaning, and after all these years the blood will show up on the walls and ceiling. It cannot be covered up, and some say there is a place on the floor where the blood is still fresh.

The Battle of Augusta began September 27, 1862 and last three days. Then the retreat began and went on for several days, so the soldier probably died in the waning days of September or early October. Want to see if we can find the place, see the blood, maybe talk to the spirit???

On the river shore east of Augusta, where a couple of corn cribs now stand, several years ago there was as old chimney. The story goes that was the remains of an old river captain's house.

The story teller advised us that this was a fine home at one time, with a widow's walk on top so his wife could walk and watch the river for her Captain husband to return home. It was on one of those days she was walking, watching the river from her vantage point, when his boat hove into view. As she watched, he approached Augusta, then, when the boat was abreast of his home, it suddenly blew. A huge explosion: fire, smoke, debris. The wife was in shock and died a few days later.

The story goes that for years the widow's spirit could be seen walking the widow's walk of the house, her figure glowing in the night. After the house was finally torn down leaving only the chimney, her spirit could still be seen, shining, floating around the chimney. Now that the chimney has been destroyed and the metal corn cribs are there, there are those who can still see the shining spirit floating around the area, a faithful wife waiting for her beloved husband—she will wait forever. Do you believe??

These are some of the stories we have collected. Do you know of any others? Let us know.

The Augusta Presbyterian Church is pleased to have reached their one year anniversary with their Monday night Soup Supper ministry. Initially it began as a way to provide a hot meal to needy families with small children and members of the community who live by themselves, it has grown to a wonderful night of fellowship for everyone involved. The church is happy to help fulfill the spiritual needs of the community as well as the needs of nourishment and companionship. The meals are held every Monday evening in the church fellowship hall from 4-6 p.m.

In conjunction with this ministry of food, last winter, the church began a coat drive offering new and gently used coats, hats, gloves, and scarfs to members of the community. All items including the meal are available free of charge. If you find yourself on Fourth Street in Augusta on Monday evenings between 4-6 p.m. stop in for some food and fellowship and get to know your neighbors all over again.

GREETINGS FROM ST. JAMES

by Caroline Jefferson

As with all churches, we have many persons on our Sick List and we offer our prayers for each of them! While a speedy and complete recovery may not be in God's plan, we ask for the grace to sustain them during their illness.

This Saturday, November 1, we celebrate the Feast of All Saints, followed by the Feast of All Souls on Sunday. This feast commemorates the lives of all those who have officially been declared by the Catholic Church as a soul in heaven by attaining sainthood. On All Souls Day we remember all our deceased loved ones and pray for their eternal rest in heaven. As Catholics, our Creed establishes that we believe in the "communion of saints" which is the union that exists between members of the Church on earth with one another, with the blessed in heaven and with the souls in purgatory. With God as our Creator, we all have instilled in us a desire to return to that Creator, and our prayers for each other can help wayward souls attain that reunion. May God bless us all as we journey toward Him and our eternal heavenly home!

Operation Christmas Child Packing Party Fri., November 7th

We will have some items available to pack but the more donations we have the more boxes we can pack to send to children.

OAKLAND CHRISTIAN by Barbara Browning

Our Youth led the service this past Lord's Day and what a service it was! Oakland is blessed to have several youth and boy, did they show their talents. Elijah Browning brought the message concerning "Esther, a Woman of Courage". Appreciation to Ann Bruin for coordinating the service. A special blessing was the baptism of Steven Cummins. PRESBYTERIAN POTPOURRI by Les Grooms, pastor Augusta Presbyterian

We had fifty seven in attendance at church this Sunday. Millie Bush was the worship leader, Susie Hargett led the singing, and Shelby England had children's church.

The deacons had a meeting after church. We could not attend because we had committed to be at a birthday celebration for one of our great-grandchildren. (We soon will have seven great-grandchildren).

We had our annual spaghetti and lasagna supper on Saturday night and we had a good attendance. There were desserts galore and some of the left over desserts will be served at the soup supper on Monday night.

Our soup suppers continue to be well attended. We are continuing with our coat ministry. If you have any gently used coats, we certainly could use them. We are in special need of children's coats.

Our Community Thanksgiving Meal will be Nov. 17 in the Presbyterian fellowship hall. We are asking each church to donate two turkeys and six pumpkin pies so we will need names of those who want carry out meals. We will need workers to help fix the food and deliver the meals. Meals will be delivered from 2-4 p.m. and then at 4 p.m. we will start serving meals for those who want to come and eat at the church. We will need plenty of help because we anticipate serving about 250 meals.

BROOKSVILLE CHRISTIAN by John Elfers

What a beautiful Fall Sunday we enjoyed this past week. As a church we prayed for God's weather and a solid attendance for our Halloween Extravaganza and our Heavenly Father delivered. Appreciation goes out to everyone who volunteered their time and talents and to all who shared in this fantastic event!

In Sunday's service, Ron finished his series from Galatians, where Paul teaches that we should all be living as new creatures. Having a new relationship with God, a new purpose in life (pleasing God, not ourselves), which will lead to eternal life. Hallelujah!

Service times & events: Sunday School 10 a.m., Sun. worship 10:45 a.m., choir practice 5 p.m., K-5 grade youth group 6 p.m., Sun. night Bible Study 6 p.m., 6-12 grade youth group 7 p.m. Men's Bible Study Mon. 7:30 p.m.

Do you have a good singing voice that is not being utilized? Do you enjoy being around people that share God's many blessings? Then please come and participate! We are centrally located and will provide transportation upon request. Phone 606-735-2731 for more information.

Letters
To The Editor

Dear Editor,
On Friday, October 17th, members of the Bracken County Cross Country Teams cleaned a portion of Highway 19 from the bridge at the bottom of "Gerhard's Hill" to the AA Highway. It is not only disgusting, but amazing the number of drink bottles, both alcoholic and nonalcoholic, food containers, and other items that people will throw out of their vehicles instead of disposing of them properly. While it is not only illegal to throw litter from your car, it is also becoming a health hazard, as hypodermic needles are now being thrown out along side of our roadways, endangering not only our children, but our pets and livestock. We ask that motorists take the time to dispose of their trash properly so others don't have to.

Sincerely disgusted,
Bracken County Cross

Add apples to your day

Submitted by: Shannon Smith, CEA for Family and Consumer Sciences

Fall is known for its abundance of great, fresh foods, and apples are among the most popular. You can prepare apples in many different ways and include them as ingredients in main courses, side dishes and desserts.

Not only are apples great additions to any meal, but they are also packed full of nutrients. They are low in calories, fat and sodium, cholesterol free and a great source of fiber. Apples also contain phytochemicals that may help prevent many chronic diseases including cancer, heart disease, asthma and diabetes.

The United States is home to more than 2,500 varieties of apples. Several of those are grown in Kentucky, including Red Delicious, Rome, Winesap, Gala, Jonathan, Cortland and Golden Delicious. You can get Kentucky-grown apples at orchards, farmers markets and some grocery stores across the state. Look for the Kentucky Department of Agriculture's Kentucky Proud label when shopping.

When selecting apples, look for firm, crisp and colorful fruit. Avoid apples with shriveled skins, bruises, worm holes or decayed spots. Apples last longer in your refrigerator, either in the crisper drawer or in an unsealed plastic bag. You can leave apples out on the counter for a few days, but an extensive period of time at room temperature will cause apples to shrivel and lose flavor and crispness. Store apples separately from vegetables, because apples naturally release small amounts of ethylene gas that can damage lettuce and other produce.

Here's a recipe from the Kentucky Proud program that incorporates apples:

Bone-in Pork Chops
with Apples and Onions

Ingredients:

2 Kentucky Proud pork chops, bone-in

Salt and pepper, to taste

1 tablespoon olive oil

1 Kentucky Proud apple, sliced

1 Kentucky Proud onion, sliced

1 cup chicken stock or apple cider, to deglaze

1 tablespoon butter, optional

Directions:

1. Pat the pork chops dry with paper towels, and season well with salt and pepper.

2. In a large skillet on high heat, heat olive oil and brown the pork chops well, about 3 to 4 minutes per side.

At this point, the pork chops will be well browned, but not cooked all the way through.

3. Transfer chops to a separate platter.

4. Add the apple and onion to the pan, and cook until softened and nicely caramelized.

5. Add chicken stock or apple cider, and scrape food morsels from the surface of the pan.

6. Nestle the pork chops back into the pan, and bring the mixture to a simmer.

Simmer until pork chops are cooked through and season with salt and pepper.

7. Add butter to the sauce at the last minute for extra richness, if desired.

More information about apples and other healthy foods is available at the Bracken County Cooperative Extension Service, 606-735-2141.

Re-Elect

Kenny Carl

as Brooksville District Constable

I, Kenny Carl, was honored to be elected as 6th District Constable during the last election and appreciate the outpouring of support I received. I have responded effectively and promptly to all calls during my tenure in this office. I have attended and successfully completed all training conferences held by the KY Constable Association since I was elected into office and I feel all constables should attend as much training as possible.

In Kentucky the position of Constable was established in the 1850 constitution. The present constitution requires the election of one constable for each district. Constables are peace officers with broad power of arrest and authority to serve court processes.

They have the authority to enforce both the traffic and criminal code of Kentucky. The KY Constitution states that Constables will possess the same qualifications as sheriff and may exercise jurisdiction in any part of Kentucky. The purpose of the constable is to uphold the law firmly and fairly to prevent crime, to pursue and bring to justice those who break the law, to keep the peace, to protect, help and reassure the community in which they serve. All of this must be done with a sense of integrity, common sense and sound judgment.

I have worked to bring honor and dignity to the office of Constable and with the support of the 6th district voters I will continue my mission for the next four years. If you have any questions about my training and would like to see my credentials you may go to the Bracken County Judge Executive's office and ask to see my file.

I seek your support and vote again in this upcoming 2015 election in order to serve and protect my community. I thank you for your vote, Kenny Carl, Bracken County Constable-District 6.

Letters To The Editor

The Augusta Independent School Class of 2015 participated in a road clean up on Route 8 from Wrangling Run Road to the intersection of Highway 1159. Designated students picked up trash for hours on both sides of the road. Trash that was picked up filled bags and bags of trash.

Students were shocked by the amount of litter on the road. Members of our community should take pride in our beautiful county. They need to dispose of their trash the proper way. Among the items picked up were: fast food garbage, cups, bottles, and straws.

As members of this community, we all need to do our part. Our class has learned a lot from doing road clean ups and we have been taught a valuable lesson. We have learned to appreciate our county and environment. We also learned that disposing of trash is a simple task that many people take for granted. Let's not forget that if caught, littering is against the law and fines can be assessed to violator, so the Class of 2015, urges each member of our community to do their part help keep Bracken County and our environment clean.

Sincerely,
The Augusta Independent School Class of 2015

Frankfort Focus

A Legislative Perspective on the Kentucky General Assembly
State Rep. Mike Denham

Given the greater focus our nation now puts on highway safety, it can be difficult to remember what it was like before the era of better car and road design and tougher law enforcement.

In the early 1970s,

we were losing more than 50,000 people a year to traffic accidents, but that number has since shrunk to less than 34,000, even with significantly more miles being driven.

Injuries from these accidents have dropped as well, from 169 people who were hurt per 100 million miles a quarter-century ago to 80 in 2012, according to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Kentucky's numbers have largely followed the same trend, but the decline has been especially steep during the last decade. As recently as 2006, traffic fatalities were topping more than 900 a year, but 2013's total was 638 – and we're thankfully on track to see even fewer this year.

For some time now, the Kentucky State Police has been gathering data on every traffic accident across the state – 146,000 overall in 2013 – to compile a highly detailed report that gives us a much clearer picture of what is working and what needs improvement.

Their numbers show that about two-thirds of these accidents took place in urban areas last year, but more than half of the traffic fatalities were in the rural parts of the state. Three-fourths of the total accidents occurred during the day, in dry conditions and on roads that are straight and either level or on an incline. Two-thirds involved two or more vehicles.

October was the busiest month for traffic accidents, while Friday held that title among the days of the week. Those switched to June and Saturday, however, when just focusing on fatalities.

Deadly accidents during the major holidays were much lower in 2013 than in 2012, but nearly a third of last year's holiday fatalities took place just over Thanksgiving. While the numbers fluctuate annually, Memorial Day, Labor Day and the Fourth of July are usually more dangerous times.

Alcohol, not surprisingly, is a major factor behind many auto accidents. While there was a decline in this type of accident last year, alcohol-related deaths went up 10 percent. This wasn't always because of a drunk driver, either; of the 55 pedestrians who were killed last year, 16 were intoxicated themselves.

Many other fatalities were potentially preventable as well. More than half of those who died in a vehicle were not wearing a seatbelt, and just 25 of the 84 killed while on a motorcycle – and none of the 15 who died while riding an all-terrain vehicle – were wearing a helmet.

On the plus side, seatbelt usage continues to improve here in Kentucky, with the figure now at 85 percent. Other recent laws are keeping us from texting while driving, and it now takes much longer for young teen drivers to get an unrestricted license. That extra time is needed, because teens make up about 7.2 percent of all drivers in Kentucky but are involved in 15 percent of all traffic accidents.

Another positive factor in our favor is the stepped-up efforts of law enforcement. Back in June, for example, the Kentucky State Police teamed up with five other states to crack down on distracted driving. Over the seven-day period, almost 2,000 citations were issued as part of the program, 153 of which were given here in Kentucky.

Given the rise of smart phones, and more bells and whistles being added to our vehicles, it can be all too easy to take our eyes off the road, but it's an impulse we have to learn to ignore. If we don't, we risk losing the gains we have made in recent years. With that in mind, I encourage you to give yourself a little extra time to travel and a little more space between vehicles, especially as we ready for another round of winter. Those extra precautions could make all of the difference in the world.

If you have any thoughts about this issue or any other, please let me know. My address is Room 329E, Capitol Annex, 702 Capitol Avenue, Frankfort KY 40601; or you can email me at Mitchel.Denham@lrc.ky.gov.

To leave a message for me or for any legislator, call toll-free at 800-372-7181. For those with a hearing impairment, the number is 800-896-0305.

I hope to hear from you soon.

The property shall be sold to the highest and best bidder(s) and said purchaser shall be required to pay cash or the sum of ten percent (10%) of the bid price in cash deposit with the balance of the purchase price to be due and payable in cash or certified funds, within thirty (30) days from the date of sale. The purchaser shall be required to execute a bond, with good and sufficient surety, bearing interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date which is thirty (30) days following the date of sale, until paid, and payable to the Master Commissioner.

The purchaser shall have the privilege of paying all or any part of the purchase price or paying said bond before maturity by paying the balance of the principal together with all accrued interest thereon. If the total purchase price is not paid in cash, the required deposit shall be applied to any expenses incurred by a default of the purchaser. Provided, however, in the event a party of this action is the successful bidder at the sale of the property by the Master Commissioner, then the said party, upon payment of the court costs and sale expenses and any liens or judgments that have been given priority herein over the lien and judgment of said successful bidder/party, shall have its bid credited against its judgment herein.

If the purchaser(s) fails to comply with the terms of the sale then, in such event, the Master Commissioner shall immediately resell the property upon the same terms and conditions as set forth herein, excepting only any necessary changes in the time and date of sale. Possession of the property herein sold shall be given to the purchaser after payment in full of the purchase price and confirmation of the sale by the Bracken Circuit Court. Pursuant to the Judgment herein, the purchaser shall be required to assume and pay all ad valorem property taxes assessed against the property for 2014 and all subsequent years thereafter. The title interest of the parties to the lawsuit will be conveyed without warranty by the Master Commissioner to the purchaser and the purchaser shall receive a deed to property upon payment of the purchase price in full (and costs of sale, if applicable) and after confirmation of the sale by Bracken Circuit Court, subject to any equity of redemption if the property does not sell for two-thirds of its appraised value.

Blue Grass Energy now offers outage texting

Blue Grass Energy is pleased to offer a new program to its members—Outage Texting. This new option will give members a faster, more direct way to report an interruption in their electric service.

After verifying the cooperative has their correct phone number, members can enroll in the program by texting “bgoutage” to 85700. Then, if the member experiences a power outage, all they have to do is text “#out” to 85700, verify their location and their outage will be reported.

“Guided by our purpose of making life better, the cooperative way, we are always looking for ways to make things better for our members,” said Chris Brewer, vice-president of Power Delivery. “Outage texting does that.”

The new texting option will also allow members to check the status of their outage by simply texting “#status”. The service will provide the most current information such as crew status and restoration times. Participating members will also receive an automatic notice when power has been restored.

“We live in a real-time world and our members want real-time information,” Brewer said. “Although we answer phones around the clock, they can get extremely busy during an outage, so texting provides an automated, immediate response that keeps members updated until power is returned.”

For full instructions for outage texting, visit the cooperative’s website at www.bgenergy.com and click on the outage tab. As always, you can still report your outage to Blue Grass Energy by calling 888-655-4243 or report it on their website.

Letters To The Editor

The Bracken County High School Boys Basketball team and coaching staff participated in the road cleanup project this October and are proud to say that we contributed to the betterment of our community. However, as we began this project we realized that the amount of litter present was much more than we initially recognized and were unprepared for the types of debris and garbage that we found. Many of the players noted that they had never paid much attention to the trash on the sides of the road and more often than not drove by without recognizing the amount of garbage there was lining the roadside. Items such as prescription medication bottles, large pieces of glass, alcohol containers and beer cans, and even the occasional article of clothing or shoes were among the things we encountered during our pick up. Again, many of the players were amazed at the amount of trash and many, if not all, could be heard saying “people need to think twice before they litter like this.” The team worked diligently and covered a three mile stretch of highway that required nine full bags of trash to be collected as well as 3 full bags of aluminum cans. The most telling comment was made by a player as we finished our day when he uttered to a teammate, “Imagine how much trash there is on all the roads, we just did three miles.” We would like to encourage the people of Bracken County to take more active role in eliminating this problem and help keep the community clean and safe for our families.

*Thank You,

Dear Editor,

During the fall trash pickup, our youth group was dismayed to find so much trash along our road ways. It is a shame that people feel the need to dump their trash along our beautiful country roads and dirty our gorgeous landscape. Please, wait till you get home and clean out your vehicles. The side of the road is not your trash can. Stop littering, it is a crime and should not be done.

Sincerely,
Powersville Baptist Youth Group

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Why would someone choose to thoughtlessly toss garbage out along the roadways of our county rather than waiting a few minutes and dispose of it properly when they get home? Not to mention, it is illegal to litter; On October 21st the Bracken County Lady Bears basketball team, parents, and coaches picked up trash on a two mile stretch on highway 10.

Most of us don't litter. Most of us dispose of our trash properly and legally. While our group appreciates the opportunity to earn money through this program, we all agree that it's a shame those people continue to destroy the beauty of the roadways in the community the rest of us value.

Sincerely,
The Bracken County Lady Bears Basketball Team

Bracken ready for Regional race, Anticipates 5th trip to State Meet

Running. You either love it. Or you hate it. For a dedicated few in the Bracken County School District, they LOVE IT. In no other school sport is an athlete asked to endure such drastic temperature and weather changes and physical endurance. Cross country runners start practicing in the heat of July, will run through the rain, mud, and cold temperatures into November. And that doesn't even begin to touch the physical challenges of running up and down steep hills, in and out of wooded areas, and the determination needed to kick in and give your all in the sprint to the finish, to beat not only yourself, but the other runner who has crept up behind you trying to do the same thing as you, finish strong.

With all the mental and physical self preparation and dedication a cross country runner must have, they must also have a coach who understands each of them and has the ability to motivate them when they have reached the end of their comfort zone and aren't sure they can go any further. Luckily for Bracken's middle school and high school runners, they have just such a leader in Coach Forrest Hunt.

He is not just a coach to these young male and female runners, he is a friend and a great example of what a true role model should be. He does not ask his athletes to do anything he isn't willing to do with them. Instead of standing on the sidelines with a stop watch in hand checking times, he is right beside them encouraging them and challenging them to go that extra mile and to push through the pain that comes with shaving the minutes and seconds needed to get to the next milestone as a runner, be it the under six minute mile, the under 11 minute 3,000 meter (1.8 miles) race, or the under 17 minute 5,000 meter (3.1 mile) race.

Coach Hunt has been with the Cross Country (XC) program since its beginning in 2010. He is very passionate about cross country and his runners and is looking forward to Regionals.

According to Coach Hunt this regional rosters have been set and the team heading to Mason Co. this Saturday Nov. 1st will be Jacob Hamilton, Cameron Botkins, Matthew Hunley, Jared Jefferson, Jacob Marsh, Brandon Cox, and Daniel Simons. On the girls side it will be Ashley Anderson, Heather Ebert, Kyndal Dotson, Samantha Anderson, and Joy Ebert.

Jacob Hamilton has been the team's number one runner all season and is coming off a career best 18:18 and has his sights set on breaking into the 17s this weekend. Cameron Botkins is the only other male runner to break into the 18s this year and has the potential to be low 18s this Saturday and close the gap on Hamilton. Matthew Hunley is the lone senior and has been a game changer throughout his career and looks to cap off his tenure with a personal best time in the 18s. Jared "Peanut" Jefferson is one of the many talented 8th graders that will compete for the Polar Bears and with consistent performances looks to shock some of the upper classmen from the other teams. He is a true example of not judging a book by its cover. Jacob Marsh is a junior that committed to his training through the summer and has that has paid dividends as he is now consistently a 19 minutes runner with aspirations of 18 minutes. Brandon Cox is an 8th grader that is peaking at the perfect time of the year. He made a huge time improvement a week ago by crushing his old best time by over 1 minute and has established himself as an up and coming star. Rounding out the boys' varsity is Daniel Simons. Daniel has seen steady improvement throughout the season and is going to be a strong catalyst in taking this team to its 5th consecutive state meet.

On the girls' side it has been a game of back and forth all season between Ashley Anderson, Heather Ebert, and Kyndal Dotson. These 3 have traded off being the number one runner all year which has spurred them on to much faster teams. They currently have the talent to claim individual spots to State if the team fails to qualify. Heather has the fastest time of the season between the girls but Ashley recently edged out Heather at the Meet of Champions and Kyndal came out strong early and is looking to reclaim first. This is not the only team battle though; Samantha and Joy have gone back and forth over the last 3 weeks and have been crushing personal best times along the way. If they can continue this effort we may see both teams making a trip to the State Meet.

Regionals are held at the old Jockey Building located at 721 Clarks Run Road, Maysville. The community is invited to cheer on their Bracken County XC teams at 1:30 p.m. (girls race) and 2:15 p.m. (boys race). Admission is $5 adults, $3 students.

Letters
To The Editor

On October 16, 2014, the Bracken County Lady Bears Fastpitch players and parents spent their evening picking up garbage along Highway 10. In that two mile stretch of road, we collected fifteen bags of garbage. We filled the bags with broken bottles, fast food wrappings, paper cups, and other waste that had been thoughtlessly tossed out the window by citizens in our community. It is ridiculous to think that people in our own county are too lazy to throw garbage away properly.

Although our group appreciates the opportunity to earn money, we still realize how shameful it is that our tax dollars have to support this kind of clean-up effort. The bottom line is littering is a crime and if you litter, you deserve to be punished, because Kentucky tax dollars are being used to clean up the trash that lazy citizens are tossing out their windows.

*Sincerely,
Bracken County Lady

Snapp wins the “Run for the Water Barrel” race; other Panthers PR as region approaches

For the final regular season meet of the year for Augusta's cross country team, the Panthers competed in the “Run for the Water Barrel” hosted by Clark County at Lykins Park on Thursday, October 23. Augusta, one of the smaller schools in attendance, competed against Lafayette, Scott County, Bryan Station, Clark County, Bath County, and Montgomery County.

Throughout most of the race, Augusta's Camryn Snapp and Lafayette's Thomas Hill battled for the lead. Snapp edged Hill out at the finish with a time of 17:12.55, claiming the boys' varsity individual champion. Lafayette's Hill finished in 17:13.10. David Reed was the next Panther to cross the finish line in 20:11. Seventh grader Seth Fouts set a new personal record, running the course in 22:47. Jon Barrett finished the 5K in 25:00 flat, while Adam Sallee ran a 27:55, a personal record for him. Rhys Todd, nursing a slight ankle injury, sat out as a precaution in order to be healthy for the Regional Championship Saturday.

This marked the first time Barrett and Sallee had ran the course, while Fouts had ran the 3K course at the meet last year. “I was glad to see Adam and Seth set PRs heading into the Region,” said Coach Tim Litteral. “Jon was out sick one day and coming off vacation, so we're still working on getting him back down to where we know he can run. He did improve over 30 seconds from Saturday.” For Reed, this was the first time outside of the Mason County course that he ran below the 21:00 mark. “David performs well at Mason, typically running around the 20:00 mark, and even 19:01 at the Area 7, but on other courses this year, his times have been a little higher, so it was encouraging to see him run near the 20:00 mark on a course other than Mason.”

Snapp, a junior, earned his second individual race championship in the last two weeks, with two first places finishes and a third place finish. “Camryn's had a great season even before these last two weeks, but in the last two weeks, I feel like he has continued to improve and kicked it up a notch,” Litteral said. “The first place finish at the Buffalo Trace was great, but outside of something unexpected happening, we expected that. Then to get into the 16:00s at the Area 7 was a big step, and then to win this race, where he did have to compete to the very end was another positive step forward.”

Next, the Panthers turn their attention to the Region 5 “A” Championship, which will be held at the Mason County cross country course. Litteral expressed his pleasure at the Region being held at Mason County. “Not only is it close to home, most of my runners love the course. Many have set PRs there.” In cross country, the number of full teams (at least five runners) that report to the start line in each region determines how many teams advance to the state championship. If there are 7-9 teams, four would advance. Litteral feels his team, who has not advanced to state since they restarted the program in 2011, has a chance to qualify. “I feel like we're a bubble team. We have a real opportunity to advance this year, depending on how we perform that day, but we will have to perform very well.” The top five individuals not on a qualifying team also advance to state. Augusta has had three instances of individuals qualifying for state.

The Region 5 “A” Championship is Saturday, November 01. The first call for the Class “A” Boys race, where Augusta competes, is 2:15 p.m. Leading up to that race will be the Region 6 “AA” and Region 6 “AAA” races starting at 9:30am, as well as the Region 5 “A” Girls race at 1:45pm. Admission for the day is $5 per adult and $3 per student.

Sports in Kentucky

by Bob Watkins

Kentucky's All-New-People getting sweet reviews; For whom bell tolls: Tar Heels Inc.

Opinions that are well rooted should grow and change like a healthy tree. — Irving Batcheller on opinions

Kentucky acquitted itself well against Mississippi State last week. By Old-Days standards, a two-touchdown loss to No. 1 in America would be a win of sorts. Not anymore.

Mississippi State demonstrated what Mark Stoops knows full well, there is much to do before Kentucky gets into conversation about SEC championship.

Meanwhile, Big Blue fans ought to be pleased with how perception is becoming reality. Television analysts Jesse Palmer (SEC Network) and Gary Danielson (CBS) have joined Andre Ware singing praises.

Palmer is a well spoken communicator with SEC combat experience (Florida). Ware owns a Heisman and Danielson is as canny and well seasoned an analyst as there is in football. Their opinions matter.

Covering Kentucky each dutifully described shortcomings and gaffes, but all three mouthed high praise for the All-New-People Wildcats and what Stoops and staff are doing.

Their sunny side commentary is gold. Raises Kentucky's recruiting profile to uncommon heights even if still below the waterline set at Alabama, Georgia and LSU.

Early playing time remains the lure at Kentucky, but sweet talk from Palmer, Ware, Danielson and others is more valuable than the most clever and flattering tweets from coaches.

Persuading a prospect to visit campus is central to success and Commonwealth Stadium is more frequently a popular visit for high caliber high school prospect. Hard evidence? See the roster, number of sophomores and freshmen, and increasing number newcomers afforded red shirts.

So, having survived LSU and competed evenly with Mississippi State, Kentucky's All-New-People Wildcats travel to Missouri with a fair chance. And, a fair chance to win one or more of their final four games.

BELL TOLLS FOR TAR HEELS

Paper classes for student-athletes at North Carolina?

From former federal prosecutor Kenneth Wainstein, just a new acronym for what we called 18 years ago, Basket Weaving 101.

But Wainstein dropped a bomb on Chapel Hill last week moving Kentucky fans to chortle and self-righteous media types to jump on the expose' bandwagon, create a drum beat demand for public humiliation then a collective lynching.

Wainstein's report, I think, assures us these preliminaries:

✓ A UNC investigation to discredit the messenger. Leak to media herd will send reporters scurrying to find the former federal prosecutor's allegiances. He must be a closet Duke fan, or a Kentucky loyalist. In fact, Wainstein is a University of Virginia and UC Berkeley graduate.

✓ Get a UNC spinner onto John Stewart's Daily Show.

✓ UNC lieutenants working for ball coaches Dean Smith-to-Roy Williams are worthy of a back-hand congratulation. They kept an academic fraud going all way back to time when a new word in our lexicon was Taliban.

✓ Makes squeaky-clean North Carolina a candidate for a Sports Illustrated cover. Shame the Sequel.

✓ The proportions and fallout from this scandal could make NCAA chiefs angry enough at UNC-Chapel Hill to slap the death penalty on UNC-Charlotte.

For now, for North Carolina's proud athletics administration, the bell tolls for thee. Tar Heels Inc. is forced to lawyer up, try and subvert pious (Williams) being dragged out of denial into the hot lights of national media.

• Three years ago University researcher Mary Willingham was fired as a whistle blower, then discredited as a plagiarist.

• Ex-player, Rashad McCants who paper classed his way to success, spoke up on academic fraud, was roundly skewed for it, but urged former teammates to "just show your transcripts." Recently, McCants' picture was taken down from a wall in the school's media room.

Meanwhile, the intrigue thickens. As this relates to University of Kentucky's much documented dirty laundry history, I will be among those interested to see how the NCAA handles Carolina coaches, in particular Roy Williams.

Will the NCAA give him the Kelvin Sampson-at-Indiana treatment: Crucifixion? Or, will

Augusta Independent hosts Bullying Prevention speaker

On Tuesday, October 21st, as part of Bullying Prevention Awareness Month, Augusta Independent Schools in collaboration with the Augusta Independent/Bracken County Community Education Program held a school-wide assembly with guest speaker Danny "Hyper Bald Guy" Plyler speaking to the youth on the issues of bullying and how it can be prevented. Danny is the founder of the Tarhe Sports and Learning Center located in Germantown, KY.

Students, faculty and staff listened as he shared his past of being bullied when he was younger, and what he did to overcome it as an adult. He also shared current facts and the various ways of how actions/words can be considered as bullying. Danny also demonstrated how to counter those who bully with physical actions. He showed examples of how to move your body as a defense mechanism to get out of a physical confrontation when being bullied.

Nation-wide, 28% of students in grades K-5 and 20% of students in grades 6-12 experienced some form of bullying during the 2012-2013 school year. Cyber bullying is quickly becoming an issue as well. With the rise in media technology, sites such as: Facebook, Twitter, Snap Chat and Insta-Gram are being utilized as online forms of bullying for teens and young adults.

Judge McCartney Asks For Your Support

It has been my pleasure to meet so many wonderful people in Bracken, Fleming and Mason Counties in these past weeks leading up to the November election. Oftentimes, the occasions for those introductions were far less than I would have liked, and my available time was whittled away by the scheduled days of court each week, plus trials in each county as required, and my on-call status on nights and weekends. But, I felt it was important for you to get to know the person behind the name in considering the candidates running for office, so I did my best to meet with you when and where I could.

I will continue to work hard as your District Judge, and I humbly ask for your support and vote on November 4th.
